

International Day of Climate Action
Saturday, October 24, 2009

Join the 350.org
Movement! Participate!

@ 10:00 a.m.

Come, run, walk, meet friends at John Paul II track! (Highbury and Oxford) Listen to drumming! Get your own 350.org button! (beverages provided)

[With thanks to John Paul II Secondary School for use of their facilities for this event.]

@ 1:30 p.m.

Come to the Wolf Performance Hall, Central Library, Citi Plaza (Galleria) for a panel discussion on

Climate Change and Activism
in London and Beyond

Jay Stanford

Environmental & Engineering Services Department, City of London
London Initiatives Related to Climate Change

Maryanne MacDonald

Waste Free World "Activism and the Municipal Bottled Water Ban in London"

Prof. Sara Seck

University of Western Ontario Faculty of Law, "Climate Change, the Copenhagen Process and Prospects for Success"

Prof. Chi Carmody, Moderator

University of Western Ontario Faculty of Law

Sponsors

FREE
No registration required
2 hours free validated parking at
Citi Plaza during Library hours.